1882. Fall Season. 1882.

EUGENE MEYER & CO.

Take pleasure in announcing to their many patrons, and the public in general, that their Fall Importations have arrived, and are now ready for inspection.

Mens', Youths' and Boys' Clothing Department.

The distinguishing feature of our really grand display of Ready-made Garments for Mens', Youths' and Boys' Wear, consists in the fact that the material used is of the very best the looms of Foreign and Domestic Manufacturers can bring forth. Linings and Trimmings being first-class, correspond in texture, as well as fabric, with the material of the garment. As to the cut and fit, the garments are indeed an eminent success, and elicit highly flattering criticisms from all sides. Through untiring efforts we have succeeded in securing an assortment of CHILDREN'S SUITS and OVERCOATS which will meet the appreciation of our patrons, being, in all respects, the most complete and most choice assortment displayed by any house on the Pacific Coast.

HAT DEPARTMENT.

In the line of Hats we show all the Latest Styles and most celebrated makes of Soft and Stiff Finished Goods.

GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS DEPARTMENT.

In this department we introduce this season a better and finer class of Underwear and Hosiery than ever before offered in this market, while our superior make of White and Fancy Shirts, aided by a mammoth stock to select from, will sustain its enviable reputation as "The Best in the Land." In Neckties, Scarfs and Dress Cravats the selection is brilliant. In Linen Collars and Cuffs we offer none but approved makes of fashionable designs.

Our Grand Show Windows will display a few of the Leading Styles, and it will be worth your while to pause for a moment in front of the "Clothing Window."

A BIG JAIL DELIVERY.

Nine Prisoners Escape from the Tucson Jail.

TUCSON, A. T., Oct. 23.—A big jail delivery occurred here this evening. William Moyer, John Murphy, and Dave Gibson, indicted for killing John Levy, James A. Morton, Pat Mahoney, John Webber, Joseph Casey, Jim Murphy and E. A. Westover, broke jail by first seizing Jailor Cooler, gagged him, and escaped through the back way. The county offers one hundred dollars for each prisoner. Great excitement prevails over the escape. Jailer Cooper was in charge alone. He allowed Murphy to go to a water closet in the corridor of the jail to vomit. The outer door of the jail was unlocked. When Murphy was passing back to his cell, Cooler was grabbed by Murphy and thrown into the cell. Mayer and Gibson, who were inside, took hold of Cooler, gagged him, bound his hands and tied him to the bars of the cell. The men then opened three other cells, releasing six other prisoners. They then secured the key to the back door of the jail yard and escaped. A body of mounted men were seen in the vicinity of the jail before the escape, and it is believed that Mayer, Gibson and Murphy were supplied with horses and arms immediately upon their exit from the city limits. A large posse has gone in different directions, but their apprehension is not to be expected, as they are all fighting men. Six of the prisoners were indicted for murder.

THE FIELD OF HONAH.

A Berkely Man Talks Fight to An Arizonian and Then Backs Out.

TUCSON, Oct. 23.—About a week ago Mr. Benjamin Morgan, of Berkeley, Cal., circulated in this Territory a defamatory pamphlet regarding W. B. Horton, Democratic candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction. Morgan arrived here Sunday morning, and it was believed a hostile encounter on the street with Horton was imminent. Rumors had been circulated that Horton would shoot him on sight, and also that Morgan would shoot Horton on sight, neither of which occurred, but later in the day, acting upon the impression that Morgan meant to fight, Horton sent him a challenge to a hostile encounter in Sonora, which was declined. Morgan then accepted a challenge to fight here, but after appointing his seconds and partially arranging preliminaries, backed entirely out.

CROOK AND THE APACHES.

How he is Taking Hold of the Indians—His best Friends.

TUCSON, Oct. 23.—A Star's special from San Carlos says: Lieut. Gatewood, of the Sixth Cavalry, arrived this afternoon, bringing all the male Indians over 10 years of the White Mountain Apaches. This completes the concentration and enrollment of the whole tribe, excepting the Chiricahuas, who have been depredating in Mexico since summer. The daily count takes place at sunrise or immediately after. General Crook informs your correspondent it will be kept up so long as a single Apache is absent without authority from the agency, either in this country or Mexico, by making each Indian wear a brass tag, with band and number inscribed. No buck can possibly remain away over twenty hours without detection, as a complete description of every Indian, corresponding with the tag, is kept for reference. All old men of the tribe, who have not forgotten the previous chastisement by General Crook in 1872, are now his warmest friends, assisting in every way in carrying out his policy. Agent Willcox is seconding General Crook in maintaining the strictest discipline. There are in round numbers thirteen hundred bucks now here capable of bearing arms.

THE CRANK FAMILY.

Developments on the Trial of Mrs. Scoville's Insanity.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The trial of Mrs. Scoville's insanity was resumed in the County Court this morning. Dr. Jas. Tiernan, of Chicago, who had given special attention to mental and nervous disorders, attended Mrs. Scoville in the latter part of 1880. He believed her insane and an improper person to have charge of the child. Dr. W. R. Lewis, a neighbor of the Scovilles, at the time a boarder in the house with them, thought her changed manner of life and epileptic fits indicated insanity. At this point the prosecution rested, and Mrs. Scoville took the stand. Her testimony was a rehearsal of her married life and troubles, which resulted from the act of Guiteau. She believed Scoville a maniac on the subject of moving. He moved six times in two years. He was "off" on the subject of jealousy. He objected to her keeping the same dealer any length of time for fear she would fall in love with him. Once he sat on the side of her bed all night, trying to make her sign a paper for separation. John Scoville told her her husband had put up a job on her to get her into an asylum. Scoville once asked her if she would be willing to be proved insane to save her brother. Scoville, she said, once confessed to familiarity with a married woman. She denied ever having kissed the man Earlie. Adjourned till to-morrow.

ON A HOT TRAIL.

A German Music Teacher Who Was Wanted by Several Mobs.

OMAHA, Oct. 23.—A German music teacher, who some weeks ago eloped from Calhoun, Washington county, with May Frahm, aged fourteen, who was one of his pupils, passed through Omaha to-day en route to Blair, the seat of Washington county, from St. Louis, in charge of an officer. As the train passed through Calhoun a large crowd gave him a warm reception, and made threats of lynching. He hid in the water-closet of the car while the officer watched him, and the train pulled out before any attempt was made. At Blair the train was stopped before reaching the depot, and the Sheriff took a short cut to the jail with the prisoner, to avoid a crowd, who afterwards rushed to the jail, but the prisoner was lodged in a cell just in time to escape them.

SORRY SAN CARLOS.

A Story of Reservation Rascality and Wholesale Plunder.

Indian Agent Tiffany and his Thieving Confederates Exposed by the U. S. Grand Jury—A Black Record.

TUCSON, Oct. 23.—The most important United States Grand Jury investigation ever had in Arizona closed to-day. The jury has been in session two weeks. It reports thirty indictments and a full investigation of the San Carlos Indian reservation frauds, several indictments against ex-Agent J. C. Tiffany for embezzlement, grand larceny and conspiracy. The grossest frauds have been discovered in trafficking Indian goods, disposing of supplies, using surplus commissary stores for speculative purposes, appropriating cattle purchased for Indians, sending Indians to work at the coal-field under white men, paying all expenses and salaries out of Indian supplies, giving receipts to Government contractors for large amounts of Indian supplies never furnished, and dividing the profits; counting rations for hundreds of Indians absent on passes, thus creating a surplus to be used by the agent and reservation syndicate. It was also established that every Indian child born received rations from the moment of its birth. The Indians were many times half fed and clothed when it became necessary to create an additional surplus, which created discontent among them. The Grand Jury attributed the recent outbreak to the agent's bad treatment of the Indians in cutting down their food and clothing, and general mismanagement, denial of the rights of Indians, the result of peculation, official avarice, violation of pledges and guarantees given Indians and never fulfilled. The jury also find that the eleven prisoners sent here had been confined fourteen months, half clothed and being badly treated, were not aware of what they were accused until brought here. Upon positive proof all were found innocent, the guilty ones having been turned loose, or escaped, while Agent Tiffany was conversant with all the facts of their guilt. Indian trader Reuben Ward, J. B. Collins, merchant at Maxey, Ezra Hoag, formerly in charge of the sub-agency of San Carlos, were all indicted for participation in frauds. Russel G. Wheeler, agent of the Pima, Maricopa and Papago Indians, was also indicted for embezzlement and perjury. The jury report that the testimony of the Indians is corroborated by white witnesses. It is an established fact that General Crook possesses the entire confidence of the Indians, and that no trouble need be feared under his administration. Many facts were discovered which the jury cannot report. They say fraud, peculation, conspiracy, larceny, plots and counterplots, seemed the rule at the San Carlos reservation, and with the facts all known, outbreaks and bloodshed of the Indians is not a matter of surprise. District Attorney Zabriskie and Marshal Tidball, who have worked up the evidence in these matters, have yet important discoveries which it is believed will connect Tiffany with a previous knowledge of the Indian outbreak. The grand jury compliments the officers for ferreting out the facts which have established the guilt of the agents.

Santa Ana Items.

Condensed from the Herald, Oct. 21.]

Mr. H. H. Roper, residing near this town, harvested one hundred and eighty sacks of grain this year from twelve acres of land.

On the 12th inst. Santa Ana shipped seventy-five boxes of raisins, weighing 1730 pounds. So San Gabriel has not had the honor of putting upon the market the first raisins of this season.

McPherson Bros. have shipped one car-load of raisins to San Francisco, and will ship another next week.

The Herald corrects the TIMES' statement that two years ago the total raisin product of the Santa Ana Valley was but 670 boxes. [The TIMES meant to say that that was the shipment from Orange alone.]

The Santa Ana Valley put up and exported in 1880 1151 boxes of raisins by rail and 176 cases by sea. In 1881 10,110 boxes by rail and 6348 by sea.

The geographical sharp of the Herald locates Burrell Point eight miles north from Santa Ana.

Santa Ana is suffering a newspaper fusillade; the rival sheets fire quotation marks and divers other points, to the wounding of the intelligent compositor, to say nothing worse.

The warm weather of the present week has been all that the raisin makers of this valley could desire.

EDGERTON.

Henry Edgerton is a great orator. He stood up last night before a mass of people in Los Angeles, and for two hours poured forth a torrent of eloquence the equal of which is rarely heard. He held his audience in breathless interest. His magnificent speech was distinguished by great power and force. It was a finished oration, wherein every word used was the exact one for the time and place. He opened with a glowing review of the greatness of the country and the splendid achievements of the Republican party in exalting it to its present sublime position among the republics of the world, and passed on to the discussion, in the clearest, most forcible, direct, convincing and powerful manner, of the great political questions of the time. He took up the dry subject of the tariff, and by his masterly treatment of it imparted to it an interest the most profound. He exposed in fearless and vivid speech the signal incapacity, the utter inefficiency of General Stoneman during his entire term of office as Railroad Commissioner, and contrasted his present cowering attitude before the people with that of his opponent, Mr. Estee, who is upon every stump in the State, meeting the people face to face, and meeting the problems of the hour, while Stoneman is silent and in concealment. He closed with an eloquent and stirring appeal to the Republicans of Los Angeles to rouse themselves to the duty before them, to come up as one man to the support of the whole Republican ticket, and stand or fall together. He expressed his firm belief that union and energy would bring victory. It was a noble speech, which, we have no hesitation in saying, will do great good.

WELCKER is not the only candidate on the Democratic State ticket who fought against his country in the hour of her death struggle with armed rebellion. There are at least two others, Ross for the Supreme Court and Foote for Railroad Commissioner. Ross, like Welcker, took the oath to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States, and never to give aid or comfort to its enemies; and he, too, violated that solemn obligation.

THE World, of New York, which is generally accorded the position of leading Democratic organ of the country, is giving only a half-hearted support to Cleveland, the Democratic nominee for Governor, and it is suspected of being secretly favorable to the candidacy of Judge Folger, the Republican nominee. The World is owned absolutely by Jay Gould, a "Folger man."

STONEMAN said in his letter to the fraudulent convention of colored strikers that he was an original abolitionist. At the same time his champions are boasting that he is a lifelong Democrat. The two statements won't interweave.

THE concluding portion of Attorney General Hart's scathing reply to Wm. A. January is as effective as the first part. January is literally pilloried and pounded.

THE Record-Union complains of the lack of "straws" in this campaign. There is no lack of them in Democratic cocktail caravansaries.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL HART'S speech last night, was, for want of time, short but it was nevertheless effective.

JOHN KELLY wants to be Governor of New York. Av coorse!

IN religion, talk is brass, action is gold. The congregations of the Presbyterian and Congregational Churches of Los Angeles on Sunday proved themselves to be people of action. Responding with alacrity to the effective appeals of Mr. Kimball, the famous church-debt destroyer, they subscribed very nearly enough money to pay off their entire church indebtedness. The amount subscribed in the Presbyterian Church was $10,010, and in the Congregational Church about $4200. It was a splendid response to a worthy appeal for a worthy cause, and soon the subscribers will have the proud satisfaction of knowing that the "death-grip" of the money-lender is no more upon their chosen chapels of worship.

THE PILLORY.

Democratic Misrepresentations that are Wilful and Deliberate.

Conclusion of Attorney-General Hart's Letter to William A. January, Democratic Candidate for State Treasurer.

[Following is the concluding portion of Mr. Hart's letter to the editor of the San Jose Herald, the first of which was published in the TIMES of last Sunday.]

Besides this, Mr. Editor, your statement about the Berkey affair is equally untrue. By Section 14 of the Act of 1874 (Statutes 1873-4, p. 748,) the collection of State taxes for the 24th and 25th fiscal years was placed in the hands of the State Controller, and by that Act he was authorized to employ an attorney, in place of the District Attorneys, in all actions prosecuted to collect such taxes. He did employ such attorney, and under that Act certain actions were instituted in Sacramento county, and the money collected paid into the hands of Mr. Berkey, as the County Clerk of that county. This money was paid to Mr. Berkey many years ago, while Mr. Irwin was the Governor, and W. B. C. Brown, the Controller, and it is susceptible of proof that the then Democratic Controller knew of Mr. Berkey's alleged defalcation, and that he called the present Controller's attention to it at or about the time of delivering up the office. The duty of Mr. Berkey under that act was to pay the money collected to the Tax Collectors of the several counties, and in my judgment it was the duty of the several tax collectors, and of the Controller and his attorney, o see that the money was properly paid. A reading of the Act of the Legislature under which these taxes were collected, if you will take the trouble to read it, will convince you, sir, that it was no part of the duty of General Hamilton or of myself to intermeddle with the matter at all.

The alleged defalcation, however, came to my knowledge but recently, and then only through a general rumor. When I learned of it, in the presence of W. H. Mills, Esq., of the Record-Union, and General Davies the present candidate on the Republican ticket for State Controller, I volunteered my services and sent word to the State Controller by Gen. Davies, his deputy, offering to see to the proper payment of the money, if that official would give me an official statement of the amount due, and authorize me to appear in the case. This the Controller failed to do, but subsequently through my conduct individually, and, as far as possible, officially, the money was all paid in, and hence your statement, that no step has been taken to recover the lost money, is absolutely false.

Beside this, Mr. Editor, you charge me with having, a few days ago, decided that voters could register up to the very day of election and vote upon the mere presentation of a Clerk's certificate, and in your comment upon this charge you show an unfairness hardly equaled in journalism in this State. At the time of changing that supposed opinion of mine, I stated that it was written in my absence by those in charge of my office, upon a misapprehension of a telegram which I had sent from Colusa, and that upon discovering the error I took immediate steps to correct it. That you know of this is evidenced by the further fact that in your editorial you refer to the opinion correcting the error, and stating how it came about.

Now, Mr. Editor, if it was your desire to deal justly with me and your patrons, why did you not state the fact as it was?

Why did you merely state the error and its correction, attributing it all to me personally, and upon it charging me with ignorance, when all the evidence before you tended to establish that, personally, I am not responsible for the error, but am entitled to credit for the correction?

You say, also, that "in almost every case that has been submitted to him he has been wrong."

A determination of the Supreme Court upon this question would probably be more satisfactory to the people than your very distinguished and cultivated judgment. But how can you say that this is true?

During my term of office I have given more opinions upon public matters than were given by my predecessors in the last eight years; the records of the office show that I have given more than five times as many; the copying book for opinions in that office shows opinions covering nearly fifteen hundred pages, many or them being upon questions which have been submitted to the Supreme Court and distinctly affirmed.

Your broad assertion, sir, constrains me to ask, at what time you read those opinions or examined those books?

My own knowledge of the fact enables me to say that you have never read those opinions, nor have you ever compared them with the decisions of the Courts, and hence I am enabled to charge you with a leap in the dark—a bold assertion, unsupported by any fact, unwarranted by any investigation you have made, and published from purely partisan considerations.

It is true that my opinion as to an election in 1880 was overruled. I make no claim to infallibility, but investigation has demonstrated to me that in that matter I am supported by nearly if not quite all the best lawyers in the State.

A wholesale denunciation of those who differ with us in matters of opinion is the act of a narrow mind, and I am sorry, sir, that you have fallen into the error. I have now given you a full statement of the facts. I have demonstrated to you the falsity of what you have published, and if you are an honorable man desiring to do justice, I shall expect from you an immediate retraction.

During my term of office I have used such ability as I possess in the interest of good Government. My conduct, in matters of great public concern, has been such as to call out favorable criticism from both the Republican and Democratic press of the State.

I have not been slow to correct errors in the administration, even when committed by Republican officials. It is a matter of general public notoriety that I have stood up for the people in cases where it required a fearless determination to execute the arduous duties of my office. I may have committed errors, but I know of none of a serious character at the present time, and I can safely say that I have the support of all who know me in the assertion that if I have committed any errors, they have not been intentional.

Hoping this explanation will be satisfactory to you, I have the honor to remain,

Very respectfully yours,
A. L. HART.

THE CITY'S GAS.

City Attorney Hazard Disposes of Some Gas Company Points.

In a recent communication to the Council, at its meeting of Saturday, Oct. 14, Mr. Simpkins, the President of the Gas Company, complains that the City Attorney "declined to suggest any course or in any way assist in the matter" of his obtaining payment for gas furnished by his company under a void contract. He says that he has dismissed all the suits but one, and the dismissal of that has been placed in the hands of the President of the Committee on Finance.

City Attorney Hazard, being interrogated by the TIMES in reference to Mr. Simpkins's letter (which has been published), said that those dismissals amount to nothing, as care was taken to dismiss "without prejudice" to another action, which could at any time be brought thereon. He said further that he stated at that time, and will state again, that when Mr. Simpkins gets himself and his company finally out of the courts, either by final judgment or by absolute dismissal of all claims under the alleged contract, then he will be of the opinion that the Council will consider Mr. Simpkins's claim against the city on its merits, and not otherwise.

The City Attorney, continuing, said: "I am aware that Mr. Simpkins offers to make a final dismissal and has so offered all along, on condition that the city pay him all he claims, which the city should never, in my judgment, do, because the amount claimed is in excess of the value of the gas furnished. Probably Mr. Simpkins can explain why he should be paid a price for gas largely in excess of its value, the same gas having been offered to the city for nearly one-half the amount charged by the Gas Company; and until he does he need not expect much cooperation from me. But let me call your particular attention to the concluding paragraph of his communication. He says: 'This resolution, or notice, (which was presented at your regular meeting after the Supreme Court had affirmed its judgment against the Gas Company) was lost upon vote in Council. The Gas Company accepted this as the will of the city that it continue to furnish gas as formerly, which it has done, and now it comes in a spirit of fairness and asks a just compensation for its property, furnished to and used by the city.' When it is considered that ever since the judgment of the Supreme Court, the city has paid the Gas Company in full for every foot of gas furnished, and the Company has received the coin in full, is it not a little surprising to hear Mr. Simpkins now declare that the Gas Company comes in a spirit of fairness and asks a just compensation therefor? Mr. Simpkins tells us that a failure to pass the resolution not to furnish any more gas was 'accepted by the Gas Company as the will of the city, that it furnish gas as formerly, which it has done.' After the judgment of the Supreme Court, he, representing the Gas Company, appealed to the city authorities, myself included, and said he could not be expected to furnish the gas under a contract which the Supreme Court had decided to be void. And at that time I told him if he would waive his contract as to the future, the city would pay for such gas as was consumed, which was agreed to and thereupon a contract was regularly entered into between the city and the Gas Company, and was duly executed by C. H. Simpkins, President, under a vote of said corporation, authorizing Mr. S. to sign the same as President; and under that contract gas was furnished to the city, and the city has regularly paid therefor, and Mr. S. has regularly received the money.

"He writes further, as you will see by his letter, 'Had that been done,' (payment made to him of the amount claimed for gas furnished before the date of the decision of the Supreme Court) 'nothing could stand in the way of electrical or any other lights for the city.' What does he mean by that statement? Its purpose cannot be to intimidate the Electric Light Company from completing its contract with the city.

"Now let me inquire: When the city entered into the new contract in all fairness with Mr. Simpkins at his request, and has been paying him punctually for gas ever since on the express agreement that he would waive all claims under the old contract, as to remainder of the term thereof, if the city would thereafter pay him for his gas, which it has done, why does he refer to this period during which he has been treated with entire fairness, as having anything whatever to do with the period prior thereto?

It now remains with Mr. Simpkins to meet the points made by the City Attorney.

Westminster Fruit Notes.

Rev. J. Marquis, of Westminster, has just returned from a five-months' trip to Illinois. He left Wednesday in the TIMES fruit-bin a number of large apples, which compare favorably with any lately taken in. His varieties embrace the Smith cider, fall pippin, yellow bellflower and Baldwin. These all grew on trees planted by himself between six and seven years ago. He gathered last year from a winter pearmain tree, same age, over 600 pounds of fruit: This year the tree is also well loaded, a number having been taken off when small for prudential reasons. Speaking of the raisin industry in his neighborhood, he said that he had shipped five tons of Muscat grapes to the Santa Barbara Cannery, receiving therefor $20 per ton. Owing to difficulties in the way of transportation, which he thinks will be soon removed, much of the raisin grape crop is lost, not being handled at all. Better prices will rule as soon as arrangements can be made with the railroad company to ship grapes at any time when ready for shipment. The Santa Barbara Cannery, having handled small lots of the Westminster grape crop last year, find the fruit so desirable as to bid for it, the company designating it as superior for their purpose.

Rev. Marquis further states that the raisin grape crop of Westminster is overabundant this season, owing to shipping difficulties above referred to, and that his region is not so favorably situated for taking care of and curing raisins, owing to climatic conditions, as localities further from the coast. It is a source of gratification to himself and neighbors to know that they are able to grow superior raisin grapes and excellent apples, to say nothing of other fruits produced in abundance.

As the torchlight procession moved along the streets last evening, the appearance from the higher streets of the city was peculiar and suggestive. The shadows of the moving throng were reflected upon the sides of the buildings, and they loomed up like gigantic Titans, powerful enough to trample down the whole of Stoneman's battalions.

Burglary.

About 7:30 o'clock last evening, during the temporary absence of Gen. Mansfield and wife from their residence, it was entered by a burglar through the kitchen window. Two girls who were in the house saw and recognized him. He had a dark lantern and hunted for valuables, but not finding any left without any booty. On the strength of the girls' description, a suspicious character named Frank Anderson was arrested soon afterwards, and it is believed he is the burglar, and also the thief who stole a gold watch from J. Kuhrts's house on First street.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

The Jay Rial troupe played last night to a full house at Turnverein Hall. This company, when here before, gave eminent satisfaction, and their engagement at this time promises as well. It is a play that never loses interest and is really always new. The characters are all good. "Little Eva" in her pathetic character drew many a tear from her admiring auditors, while "Marks" the lawyer, the bloodhounds, and the jubilee singers, and "Topsy," who "jest growed," gave a very pleasing variety to the entertainment. The play will be repeated this evening.

REPUBLICAN GUNS.

A Great Speech by a Great Orator to an Entranced Audience.

Hon. Henry Edgerton to the People of Los Angeles—Followed by Attorney-General Hart—The Spanish Meeting.

Last evening a very fine gathering of citizens greeted the distinguished Republican speakers, Hon. Henry Edgerton and Hon. A. L. Hart, at the stand on Court street.

The meeting was called to order by T. J. Caystile, Esq., Chairman of the Republican County Central Committee, who nominated G. Wiley Wells as Chairman, with the following Vice-Presidents and Secretaries: Vice Presidents: J. E. Hollenbeck, D. M. Berry, M. D. Johnson, J. M. Clark, T. B. Hayes, J. Q. A. Stanley, E. J. Vawter, J. C. Leighton, J. Nagle, R. J. Northam, C. G. Kellogg, H. G. Otis, T. J. Weldon, F. Lanteris, J. S. Nadeau, H. B. Lewis, H. S. Knapp, A. H. Tuffts, J. G. Mosbaugh, Chas. Soward, A. McComas, G. W. Townsend, H. J. Crow, J. V. Dilley, Geo. Hull, C. Vaughn. Secretaries, J. D. Gilchrist, Louis Ebinger.

Mr. Wells then in a neat introductory speech presented Hon. Henry Edgerton, of Sacramento. Mr. Edgerton referred to the fact of his being a candidate at large for Congress. While the signs of the times point to Republican success, it was well to admonish it that they needed a decided awakening, and it would conquer if it only exercised half of its old enthusiasm. California ought to be a Republican State. To the Democrats she owes little or nothing. We keep in tender memory the war which is a part of her history. The Democracy for a long time and persistently fought the admission of California as a State. Twenty-seven years ago the Republican party sprang from the people like Pallas from the brow of Jove. She took the stand that the principles of the Declaration of Independence, and the preservation and defense of the Constitution and the Union were of paramount importance. Human slavery is a blight against God and everything it touches. People must protect their industries, and we ask for a protective tariff. The Republican party now stands at the bar of public opinion in California to render an account of its stewardship. It is no wonder that in its history of a quarter of a century some abuses have crept in. By the homestead laws of the Republican party it has changed a howling wilderness to the garden of the gods. Under what skies, in what heaven has any emblem been unfolded like our national banner that represented so much power and makes the American name so respected? In 1861, at the close of the Democratic administration, we had 33,000,000 of people. Now we have 55,000,000. All Europe has only seventy-five cities containing over 100,000 souls. The United States has thirty with each over 100,000 souls. In 1861 we had 32,000 miles of railroads; now we can gird the earth four times with railroads. Then the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards were weeks and months of travel apart; now but seven days count the span. Then San Francisco marked the western boundary; now it is far to the east of the utmost western boundaries. Then the national debt was from $60,000,000 to $80,000,000, and under Buchanan the United States bonds went begging. Now, it is about $3,000,000,000, with 4 per cents. at 19¾ premium. And this was the purchase of a united Government of States. Then the vast territory between the Misssissippi and the Pacific Coast was a wilderness; it is now being rapidly settled, and its industries developed. And when the Republican party comes to count up its jewels Kansas will be one of them. The Democratic orators refuse any credit to the Republicans for this prosperous condition, but ascribed it to the people and Almighty God. He believed in a requiting Providence, and it was a great blessing that the Republican party has been the chosen instrument his wonders to perform. If so, the existence of the Democratic party was to be accounted for from the fact that God had so framed the constitution of the universe that evil was eternal and the Devil immortal. [Laughter and applause.] No Democrat could read the encomiums of several statesmen of other nations whom he named without giving the Republican party its proper credit. Thus he presented the history of the Republican party and the present condition of the nation under its fostering care. New questions are pressing upon us, and no recapitulation of the past can meet the question of the present. He referred to DeLesseps' and Ead's great plans, and that over two-thirds of the stock to the latter had already been subscribed in foreign lands, and boys and girls are living in Los Angeles who will live to see the great plans carried out. The great question that exercised the great minds of the age was cheap transportation. Mr. Poore in his Railroad Manual estimates the value of all railroads on the earth to be $500,000,000, and the gross receipts to be $700,000,000 annually; the net receipts, $255,000,000 annually; and they employed over 1,000,000 men. After Parliament had passed 3000 laws and the railroad corporations had spent $450,000,000 to defeat the laws, they appointed a commission to investigate the matter. After two years they recommended that a commission be appointed by the Crown. One man was to be the representative of the law, one of the railroad, another of the commercial business. As a result the railroad in England is past agitation and irritation. California has somewhat imitated England in this matter. Our commission has almost unlimited power. In the hands of men it will be, according to their character, baleful or beneficent. The Republican party has nominated Col. Gibson, of Oakland, and the Democrats Mr. Foote. Mr. Foote has made a pledge that within thirty days after taking office he would reduce transportation twenty per cent. Even Doyle, also Democratic, says no gentleman can take such a pledge. He knew he was speaking in the home of General George Stoneman. Against him he had nothing to say. But his record was public property. General Stoneman has been Railroad Commissioner for five years—three years by the appointment of Gov. Irwin under the O'Connor bill, and two years by his election. During that time General Stoneman has been paid $20,000 in hard bullion for his services, but he has never given a line of information on the subject of railroads. Only a few days ago Governor Stanford flooded the land with printed documents containing his side of the question. Why did not Stoneman answer him? Railroad Commissioners in other lands were scattering their arguments among the constituents. He then detailed the last session of the Commission, and exposed Stoneman's utter weakness. The four-cent rule, which Stoneman wished made three, would ruin the narrow-gauge railroads in this State which are in opposition to the Central Pacific. The Colfax and Nevada Railroad cannot turn a wheel on four cents a mile. He stated on the authority of Judge C. Schell, of Tulare county, that Stoneman had said that fares and freights were entirely reasonable. Where is Stoneman? Where are the Democrats herding him? [Cheers, laughter and applause.] Mr. Jefferson never made a speech, but had the noble record of the Declaration of Independence and the laws of Virginia. Stoneman's record, though he never makes a speech, should inspire one with distrust. It is said that he once surrendered 1500 men to 500 down in Georgia. Perhaps he is somewhere negotiating to surrender the Democratic party to Mrs. Marion Todd! [Great laughter.]

In 1789 the question of the protective tariff began to be agitated. He reviewed the history of the tariff question. During the past three years more than $3,000,000,000 in twenty dollar gold pieces have been brought into this country. The last year has brought 800,000 laboring men from Europe, because labor is higher and supplies cheaper than at home. The Chinese have degraded labor on this coast. Ireland was ruined because England took away its manufactures. The Democrats mean mischief on this question. Last winter they kept the tariff question under fire for eight weeks, and seventy-five of them voted for the reduction of the tariff, and to refer the tariff to the Committee of Ways and Means, and looked to the restoration of the Walker tariff. Glasscock himself said he will vote for the reduction of the tariff. He spoke of the attempt to tear the Revolutionary Sabbath from the almanac. The majorities in Ohio have been so reduced that it may yet turn out to be Republican. The Republican giant of Ohio has been asleep, but he would awake yet, and assist in a glorious national victory. Have you heard from West Virginia, Iowa, Oregon, Vermont and Maine? They send no discouraging news. He had heard that the Republicans of Los Angeles were going to trade their State for their county ticket. In a glowing peroration he exhorted them all to stand by the ticket. At the close of his address three rousing cheers were given for M. M. Estee.

ATTORNEY GENERAL A. L. HART

was then introduced by the Chairman. We have been reminded from every Democratic rostrum in this State that Ohio has gone Democratic, and that a majority of its Congressmen are Democratic. It is therefore the duty of every Republican to vote at the coming election. It will be a cold day on the 7th of November for the Democracy. [Cheers.] He would not quarrel with those who differ from him politically. Mr. Stoneman stands before the people as an anti-railroad man. He was not an anti-railroad man. He believed the railroads to be beneficial, but when they become abusive, they should be corrected. George Stoneman, of Los Angeles, is supported by the railroads. Proof: he is supported by the Sacramento Record-Union, which advocates the cause of the railroad. Stoneman is supported by Pixley, the political adviser of Stanford. He is also supported by a man whose name should not be mentioned from the rostrum the same day with Mr. Estee's. It is Marcus D. Bore-ax, the editor of a small horse paper. He then attacked Stoneman in vigorous style. He defended Estee's deflection from local issues. The railroad ask for a Governor that can be used by them, and help aid them escape their taxes, and they want Stoneman. In 1864 the Republicans authorized the issuance of bonds, and for eighteen years California has paid $105,000 per annum as interest to help them, yet they refuse to pay their taxes. The Republican party, true to its promises, has given us effective anti-Chinese laws, and has always done thus. You may destroy the Republican party, but never its usefulness.

The meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers and a tiger for the whole Republican ticket.

The Spanish Meeting.

Another meeting was held at the Pico House for the Spanish and native population, which was addressed by Hon. Chas. Forbes and E. F. de Celis in the Spanish language. They had a large audience, though the speaking had not been much advertised. Both gentlemen made eloquent addresses, and they will influence many a vote to the side of right and good government. Mr. Forbes is stumping the State under the State Central Committee and is doing a good work.

Produce Exchange.

The adjourned meeting of the Board of Directors of the Produce Exchange was held last evening at E. Germain's store, the following members being present: H. Newmark, A. Haas. E. Germain, Jacob Loew, and E. J. Curson.

On motion, it was resolved that the room over J. J. Mellus' store in Arcadia Block, having an entrance from Arcadia street, should be rented for one year as the headquarters of the Exchange; also that a telephone, tables, chairs, and other accessories should be placed therein.

On motion, John M. Davies was elected Secretary of the Exchange. Provision will be made for San Francisco produce quotations by telegraph, and a complete call list of local quotations as soon as the room is fitted up.

From Glasgow to Los Angeles.

The arrival of Mr. Robertson and family, from Scotland, was noted in Sunday's TIMES. On the way from the Atlantic coast they visited a large number of cities, towns and villages, but they are more favorably impressed with Los Angeles and vicinity than any place heretofore visited, and will remain here during the winter at least. Mr. Robertson is one of a firm of cotton goods manufacturers in Glasgow employing 1500 hands. They have also cotton spinning mills at Oldham, Lancashire, England, where 200 operatives are employed and a capital of £80,000 is invested in each institution. It is to be hoped that Mr. Robertson will remain permanently and embark in some manufacturing enterprise in this city.

Cahuenga Pass Mine.

Los Angeles is coming closer and closer to the front as an oil and mineral region. It is now not necessary to go upon or beyond the mountains to find paying mines, as valuable silver leads have been struck within five miles of the Court House. Boliver Cox, formerly employed in the postoffice, his brother and Mr. Canepa, doing business corner First and Spring streets, have discovered good silver mines in Cahuenga Pass, eight or nine miles northwest of the city. One of the ledges is estimated at $50 to the ton, and another assays $75. Development is in order.

Why Did He Do So?

As two ladies were driving by the depot yesterday evening in a buggy, their horse became unmanageable from some cause, made several violent starts, and threw them out of the buggy. The lady who handled the reins showed remarkable snap and presence of mind in hanging on to the lines while being dragged a distance of twenty feet or more. She succeeded in stopping the horse, and when his harness was being readjusted and the buggy righted she very demurely asked a bystander "what could have made him do so?"

Promotion of a Railroad Man.

Freight Conductor Cameron, of the Southern Pacific Railroad, was surprised last week with a summons from Superintendent Fillmore to proceed north and take charge of a passenger train from Truckee to Winnemucca. Although Mr. Cameron has invested considerably in real estate in East Los Angeles, and was preparing to purchase still more, the offer was too tempting and he has already accepted the position. He has been a conductor over twenty years, and during that time has traveled 700,000.

Shetland Ponies En Route.

From the Muscatine, Iowa, Journal.]

Messrs. R. M. Baker and A. McDermont, of the Washburn California excursion parties, loaded a car with household goods and Shetland ponies to-day, and sent them forward to Kansas City, to be ready for them to go along through to Los Angeles, California, with the party. Mr. Baker is an extensive breeder of Shetland ponies, and proposes to show the Los Angelians some nice stock. He takes one along for Rev. B. F. Karnes.

An Ill Wind, etc.

At the time of closing the polls at the voting for Governor at the Pavilion Saturday night, there were 280 votes for Estee, which, had the persons who held them known of the fact that the closing would take place exactly at ten o'clock, would have been recorded. This would have placed Estee far ahead. A portion of the money which would have gone for the votes was given to the little English twins which were on exhibition.

The Republican Watch-fires.

The torch-light procession which preceded the speaking last evening was a very creditable affair. Fred. J. Helbrook was Grand Marshal, with Capt. W. H. H. Russell, H. R. Brown, E. F. de Celis, M. S. Arevalo, S. A. de Cardona as aids. The procession proceeded through the principal streets of the city, preceded by a band and carriages containing the speakers of the evening.

A RED-LETTER DAY.

Fourteen Thousand Dollars Raised for Church Purposes on Sunday.

Sunday was a red-letter day for the Presbyterian Society of this city. As is well known, that church has been engaged in the erection of a church building, the structure of which stands on the corner of Fort and Second streets, and is an attraction and ornament to the city. The work was begun nearly a year ago, but from a lack of funds the work a few months since was stopped, and, though but for a short time, when it was resumed, it was with a small force, and the work has progressed very slowly and the discouragements were thickening for those who were engaged in the attempts to raise the necessary funds for the completion of the building. The pastor, Rev. J. W. Ellis, has been indefatigable in his efforts from the commencement of the enterprise; has figured, has planned, has solicited, has superintended and collected, but he has never given up. He is not made of that sort of stuff, and having occasion to visit San Francisco while attending a meeting of the Synod of the Presbyterian churches, he undertook to raise some means there. He met with indifferent success on account of a peculiar condition of affairs in the Presbyterian Churches there, but he there met with Mr. Edward Kimball, of Chicago, a gentleman who has gained a world-wide reputation as a successful money raiser to free debt-laden churches. Mr. Ellis having heretofore corresponded with Mr. Kimball in reference to visiting this church, renewed his overtures, and Mr. Kimball accompanied him to this city. Sunday he appeared in Rev. Mr. Ellis's pulpit and immediately announced his mission, reading from the Scriptures the authority for the work in which he was engaged, with some remarks interspersed. He then announced that the sum needed to complete the building was $10,800. He would undertake to raise the sum of $10,000, and the remainder could be raised by the trustees when needed. He laid before the congregation his plan in a few words, stated the case, but indulged in no special pleading whatever, and proceeded to the work. In two hours the entire sum asked, with ten dollars more for good measure, was raised. The meeting was a long one, but when it was announced that $10,000 had been raised there was no one that thought the time long proportionately to the work accomplished.

In the evening, Mr. Kimball, at the solicitation of the trustees of the Congregational Church, visited that church and raised for them $4200, with a small congregation to work upon. Next Sunday he will complete the task for them.
